DETAILED ACTION

Information Disclosure Statement

1. The information disclosure statement filed 9/15/2006 fails to comply with the provisions of 37 CFR 1.97, 1.98 and MPEP § 609 because it lacks of translation in English. It has been placed in the application file, but the information referred to therein has not been considered as to the merits. Applicant is advised that the date of any re-submission of any item of information contained in this information disclosure statement or the submission of any missing element(s) will be the date of submission for purposes of determining compliance with the requirements based on the time of filing the statement, including all certification requirements for statements under 37 CFR 1.97(e). See MPEP § 609.05(a).

Claim Objections

2. The claims are objected to because they include reference characters which are not enclosed within parentheses.

Reference characters corresponding to elements recited in the detailed description of the drawings and used in conjunction with the recitation of the same element or group of elements in the claims should be enclosed within parentheses so as to avoid confusion with other numbers or characters which may appear in the claims. See MPEP § 608.01(m).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1-2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Golser et al. (US 4238743).

Golser discloses in Figs. 1-2 a gas slab laser with a gas filled chamber bounded by a housing (1, 6 and 7), with at least two electrodes excited by high frequency (inherent for gas discharge laser), which extend into a tubular housing (1), overlap each other and form a gas discharge chamber, and with resonator mirrors (8 and 9), wherein the resonator is adjusted by elastic deformation of the housing (6 and 7) to produce the required spatial alignment of the resonator mirror relative to each other (col. 3, lines 35-39).

4. Claims 1-2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Kindl et al. (US 3826998).

Kindl discloses in Fig. 1 a gas slab laser with a gas filled chamber bounded by a housing (10 and 11), with at least two electrodes excited by high frequency (inherent for gas discharge laser), which extend into a tubular housing (10), overlap each other and form a gas discharge chamber, and with resonator mirrors (14 and the opposite side of the tube to create a resonator), wherein the resonator is adjusted by elastic deformation of the housing to produce the required spatial alignment of the resonator mirror relative to each other (col. 2, line 39 to col. 3, line 31).
